Questions to ponder/discuss:

1. What does Psalm 145 reveal about God?

2. What does Psalm 145 reveal about humans?

3. If the above is true, what needs to change in your life? What will that look like?

4. Verse 3 says that God’s greatness is unsearchable.
  - a. What does unsearchable mean?

  - b. How does that make you feel? (humble, scared, overwhelmed, excited, etc) Why?

5. Compare and contrast Psalm 145:14-20 with Colossians 1:15-23

Experiential

Sometimes activities help us to understand and process biblical truths. The one below is a suggestion for how to experience the truths of the book of Psalm 145. Feel free to use one of these or any you might come up with.

Unsearchable God

Look at the picture. Write down what you see. As you look at it more, what do you notice?

This is a glimpse of what it means for God to be unsearchable. The more we seek Him, the more we discover (and we will never run out of something to discover!) He is worthy to be praised indeed!

SING (a suggested song to sing. Use this or any song you might want to sing)

With Everything

An anthem to worship God in everything we do

All Hail the Power of Jesus Name - #95 in Mennonite Hymnal

A song imploring us to crown Jesus Lord of all

PRAY

This is a time to gather around for prayer requests and to share how you have seen God at work. A time to hear where God is showing up in our lives and where we need Him to help us in our lives.

Sending prayer based on the lesson: Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen
