

A Series in

Have you ever prayed and not gotten a clear answer? Have you ever gone through a day, week, or month wondering whether God was actively working in the world, let alone in your life? Sure, you've experienced your share of coincidences, but could you honestly say you've seen the hand of God at work in you and through you? What do we do in these situations?

Enter the book of Esther...

An account filled with difficult decisions and curious coincidences, all the while a deafening silence from God who is not mentioned even once in the entire book.

Join us as we dive deep and discover how God might in fact be working... even when we can't see Him.
