EXPERIENTIAL ACTIVITY – Generational Insight

Last week, we experienced the power of asking questions as a way to influence others. We can also ask questions as a way to assist with our own troubles, difficulties or challenges. Rehoboam was clever in seeking out the advice of his father's counselors, yet displayed an utter lack of wisdom when instead of listening to them, chose to listen to his friends of the same age.

What challenge are you currently facing? What obstacle do you need to overcome? Perhaps its hard to share with your sibling, maybe you have a conflict with a friend, perhaps you feel overly busy and under rested, or maybe a problem at work that you haven't solved yet. Talk to 3 different people this week about whatever it is that you can't figure out on your own asking for their advice. But here's the thing, talk to 1 person that is in your generation and two people that are from two different generations than your own.

Then, prayerfully take into account the wisdom they share and determine action steps for moving forward. After you take action, spend time reflecting on the process. What do you want to remember? What went well? What would you do differently next time?

SING (Suggested songs to sing. Use these, or any favorites of the gathered group, to worship Jesus!)

PRAY

This is a time to gather around for prayer requests and to share how you have seen God at work. A time to hear where God is showing up in our lives and where we need Him to help us in our lives.

Sending prayer based on the series:

Holy Spirit, help me to rebel for your Kingdom and to bear fruit in every good work where I live, work, study and play.
