Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths. Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD, and turn away from evil. It will be healing to your flesh and refreshment to your bones.

 - d. What are the verses revealing about God? What are the verses saying about people?
 - e. In light of these, what needs to change in your life? What are you already doing well?
2. What proverb connected with the sermon?
3. What proverb did the Holy Spirit draw to your attention?
 - a. Is there something in this proverb to obey? A mindset to align to? A promise to receive?
 - b. What is keeping you from aligning with this proverb?
 - c. How can you live this out in your life from this point on?

EXPERIENTIAL ACTIVITY – Meditate and Do

This is simple yet life changing. Pick one Proverb from chapters 19-21 and spend time meditating on it. What does meditate mean? Think about meditating as having a discussion with the Holy Spirit about the verse of choice. Talk to Him about each word. Brainstorm about the words pondering all they could mean. What makes it challenging to follow? Or scary to apply. Talk about all these things with the Holy Spirit. This is meditating. But we don't stop at meditating, live out the verse and apply it to your own life, in your own situations as well.

PRAY

This is a time to gather around for prayer requests and to share how you have seen God at work. A time to hear where God is showing up in our lives and where we need Him to help us, for this week.

Sending prayer based on the message:

Lord Almighty, Father-Son-Holy Spirit, give me ears to hear and eyes to see as I go through this week to be ever mindful of your presence with me, to trust Your ways in all things, and to walk in Your wisdom and truth.
